GST 102 — Communication in English

Lecture 6 — Course Notes

Summary writing keeps only the essential points of a text.

Clarity and conciseness make writing easier to understand.

Non verbal cues include gestures, posture, and facial expression.

Paraphrasing restates a passage in your own words without changing the meaning.

Communication is the transfer of a message from a sender to a receiver.

A memorandum is a short, direct message used within a formal organisation.

An outline organises ideas before a long essay is written.

Effective listening requires attention, patience, and honest feedback.
