GST 102 — Communication in English

Week 4 Notes

Communication is the transfer of a message from a sender to a receiver.

Clarity and conciseness make writing easier to understand.

Note taking helps the listener capture the main points of a lecture.

Paraphrasing restates a passage in your own words without changing the meaning.

Effective listening requires attention, patience, and honest feedback.

Register refers to the level of formality in language use.

Summary writing keeps only the essential points of a text.

Non verbal cues include gestures, posture, and facial expression.

An outline organises ideas before a long essay is written.

A memorandum is a short, direct message used within a formal organisation.

The topic sentence introduces the main idea of a paragraph.
